

List of paper machines to be shut down in 599 Chinese companies in 2011

China's Ministry of Industry and Information Technology announced a list of 599 paper mills that would be shut down as part of the government moves to phase out most polluting and energy-intensive industries. The affected mills have a total capacity of 8.196 million tonnes per year.

The English List of the above-mentioned paper mills (with description of the paper machines to be shut down) is now available.

To order, please contact: kite@chinapaperonline.com or michelle@chinapaperonline.com.

List of 279 paper mills to be shut down in China in 2010

China's Ministry of Industry and Information Technology announced a list of 279 paper mills that would be shut down as part of the government moves to phase out most polluting and energy-intensive industries. The affected mills have a total capacity of 4.65 million tonnes per year.

The English List of the above-mentioned paper mills (with description of the paper machines to be shut down) is now available.

To order, please contact: kite@chinapaperonline.com or michelle@chinapaperonline.com.